

COALVILLE TIMES

N. JACOB PETERSON,
Editor and Manager.

COALVILLE, UTAH

UTAH STATE NEWS

George W. Hanson, a former stock dealer of Ogden, has been nominated by the president as consul at Madrid, Spain.

The education division of the ABEI national college of Utah is to be removed from Salt Lake to Ogden in the near future.

Fifty additional Hebrew families from the east will shortly be brought in Utah to join the Jewish colony at Carbon in the Plateau project.

Morris Black, aged nineteen, and Lawrence Clark, seventeen, of Hingham, are in the county jail at Ogden on charges of robbing last of cattle last December.

Frank Barrett of Kureika, was elected president of the Utah State Foreman's association, and Bull Lake was chosen for the next convention of the association held in Kureika last week.

A massive celebration was held at Provo in honor of the homecoming of Alvin Richards, Utah's representative on the American track team and winner of the running high jump at Stockholm.

W. B. Longwater is in the Provo general hospital with a broken leg and jaw and fractured skull as the result of an accident at the cement mill used at the west portal of the great Strawberry tunnel.

Jack Callahan, alleged accomplice of Charles Gambrell in the slaying of Night Marshal Frank O'Connell at Midvale, August 7, has been positively identified by several Midvale citizens as Callahan's murderer.

Salt Lake's inspector of police has issued an order that any person, except an officer or other member of the department caught smoking in uniform may expect to be laid off on his last day without pay.

H. T. Holmes, state commissioner of immigration, labor and commerce, is endeavoring to arrange a meeting of his western fellow commissioners in Salt Lake during the week of the national irrigation congress.

A new ordinance designed to make it a misdemeanor for anyone to solicit or give away transfers received by passengers on lines of the Salt Lake Street Car company may be introduced before the city commission.

Harry Thorne, twice convicted of the murder of George W. Paesell, a Salt Lake groceryman, and charged with the slaying of a woman, was on Thursday sentenced to be shot at the state prison Thursday, September 26.

Politics is talked in the police and fire departments of Salt Lake, there after when any member of either department desires to talk politics or express himself on the political situation he must get beyond hearing of the heads of the department.

Work on the proposed new electric interurban, to be known as the Ogden, Logan & Northern Electric, is being rushed. Within the next few days the surveying will be completed, and the road will be laid out. Construction will then commence.

The ruling of the federal department of agriculture that tomatoes not in solid pack, that is, with juice or broken fruit mixed with the whole tomatoes in the can, must be labeled as such, does not affect Utah canners. Utahs was the solid process.

As the opening of the duck season approaches, owners of club grounds around Salt Lake are clearing their places for the first day, October 1. Many shot ducks have been found on the shooting grounds, but hunters say there is no reason to apprehend an epidemic.

The city council of Kayville has granted a franchise for twenty-five years to the Home Telephone & Electric company to furnish power and lights to inhabitants of Layton, Clarendon, Hooper, Wrayman and occupants of homes outside the city limits. This company is local.

Citizens of Baskinville are aroused by a report that Beverly Peterson, a lad of sixteen, was subjected to being run until almost dead by Lars A. Johnson and John Johnson, brothers. Peterson is said to have asked for money but was not paid and was maltreated by the Johnsons. It is said.

Black cartridges vilified and then used as the Utah Indian war veterans and their Indian friends staged an elaborate farce as the feature of the program of the second day of the regiment at Baskinville. The Indian attack on the Utah Indian war veterans and their Indian friends was a farce, and was devoted.

Mrs. Maude E. Cohen of Grantsville, widow of E. F. Cohen, former mayor, killed last June by a hit of a horse, will receive from the county court $1,000, which is equivalent to one year's salary. The money will be paid under the provisions of the new revised government liabilities act.

According to Michael Louis, state insurance commissioner, the legislative committee at the coming national convention of insurance commissioners will recommend the passage of bills throughout the country prohibiting the use of the common or parrot match.

While lighting an acetylene gas lamp in the Southern Pacific shops at Ogden, J. J. O'Neil, of Bull Lake, was severely burned by an explosion of the gas. He was removed to the hospital. His burns were chiefly about the face and hands and may prove fatal.

AMERICANS SLAIN BY NICARAGUANS

VICTIMS HAD BEEN WOUNDED AND WERE SEEKING REFUGE IN A HOSPITAL.

Murder Retells the Incident Which Threw the Dictator Zelaya Out of Office and Sent Him Into European Exile.

Washington, Sept. 26.—Two Americans were reported to have been brutally murdered in the hospitals of the Nicaraguan capital today for the victims of today's slaughter. The two men were said to be Harvey Lord of Knoxville, Miss. and a man named Phillips. The two men had been wounded and were seeking refuge in a hospital, according to the report received Thursday at the state department. They were said to have been fighting with the government forces.

The killing of Lord and Phillips, though an entirely a private matter, recalls the killing of Thomas and Grace by Zelaya in 1904, which resulted in an agreement that threw the dictator out of office and sent him into European exile. The state department is pressing for more information.

The massacre of the Lord, Nicaraguan troops, sent to defend Lord, is fully confirmed by a detailed cable from received from the American legation at Managua, dated August 15. The cable stated that the Lord and Phillips were the white force of defenders at the time of the battle.

The killing of Lord and Phillips, though an entirely a private matter, recalls the killing of Thomas and Grace by Zelaya in 1904, which resulted in an agreement that threw the dictator out of office and sent him into European exile. The state department is pressing for more information.

The massacre of the Lord, Nicaraguan troops, sent to defend Lord, is fully confirmed by a detailed cable from received from the American legation at Managua, dated August 15. The cable stated that the Lord and Phillips were the white force of defenders at the time of the battle.

The killing of Lord and Phillips, though an entirely a private matter, recalls the killing of Thomas and Grace by Zelaya in 1904, which resulted in an agreement that threw the dictator out of office and sent him into European exile. The state department is pressing for more information.

The massacre of the Lord, Nicaraguan troops, sent to defend Lord, is fully confirmed by a detailed cable from received from the American legation at Managua, dated August 15. The cable stated that the Lord and Phillips were the white force of defenders at the time of the battle.

The killing of Lord and Phillips, though an entirely a private matter, recalls the killing of Thomas and Grace by Zelaya in 1904, which resulted in an agreement that threw the dictator out of office and sent him into European exile. The state department is pressing for more information.

The massacre of the Lord, Nicaraguan troops, sent to defend Lord, is fully confirmed by a detailed cable from received from the American legation at Managua, dated August 15. The cable stated that the Lord and Phillips were the white force of defenders at the time of the battle.

The killing of Lord and Phillips, though an entirely a private matter, recalls the killing of Thomas and Grace by Zelaya in 1904, which resulted in an agreement that threw the dictator out of office and sent him into European exile. The state department is pressing for more information.

The massacre of the Lord, Nicaraguan troops, sent to defend Lord, is fully confirmed by a detailed cable from received from the American legation at Managua, dated August 15. The cable stated that the Lord and Phillips were the white force of defenders at the time of the battle.

The killing of Lord and Phillips, though an entirely a private matter, recalls the killing of Thomas and Grace by Zelaya in 1904, which resulted in an agreement that threw the dictator out of office and sent him into European exile. The state department is pressing for more information.

The massacre of the Lord, Nicaraguan troops, sent to defend Lord, is fully confirmed by a detailed cable from received from the American legation at Managua, dated August 15. The cable stated that the Lord and Phillips were the white force of defenders at the time of the battle.

The killing of Lord and Phillips, though an entirely a private matter, recalls the killing of Thomas and Grace by Zelaya in 1904, which resulted in an agreement that threw the dictator out of office and sent him into European exile. The state department is pressing for more information.

The massacre of the Lord, Nicaraguan troops, sent to defend Lord, is fully confirmed by a detailed cable from received from the American legation at Managua, dated August 15. The cable stated that the Lord and Phillips were the white force of defenders at the time of the battle.

The killing of Lord and Phillips, though an entirely a private matter, recalls the killing of Thomas and Grace by Zelaya in 1904, which resulted in an agreement that threw the dictator out of office and sent him into European exile. The state department is pressing for more information.

The massacre of the Lord, Nicaraguan troops, sent to defend Lord, is fully confirmed by a detailed cable from received from the American legation at Managua, dated August 15. The cable stated that the Lord and Phillips were the white force of defenders at the time of the battle.

The killing of Lord and Phillips, though an entirely a private matter, recalls the killing of Thomas and Grace by Zelaya in 1904, which resulted in an agreement that threw the dictator out of office and sent him into European exile. The state department is pressing for more information.

The massacre of the Lord, Nicaraguan troops, sent to defend Lord, is fully confirmed by a detailed cable from received from the American legation at Managua, dated August 15. The cable stated that the Lord and Phillips were the white force of defenders at the time of the battle.

The killing of Lord and Phillips, though an entirely a private matter, recalls the killing of Thomas and Grace by Zelaya in 1904, which resulted in an agreement that threw the dictator out of office and sent him into European exile. The state department is pressing for more information.

The massacre of the Lord, Nicaraguan troops, sent to defend Lord, is fully confirmed by a detailed cable from received from the American legation at Managua, dated August 15. The cable stated that the Lord and Phillips were the white force of defenders at the time of the battle.

The killing of Lord and Phillips, though an entirely a private matter, recalls the killing of Thomas and Grace by Zelaya in 1904, which resulted in an agreement that threw the dictator out of office and sent him into European exile. The state department is pressing for more information.

SIX PERFECT EARS OF CORN STOLEN!

REBELS ARE CAUGHT IN TRAP OFFERED MILLIONS FOR SEAT IN THE SENATE

Grease With Small Force Surrounded in Chihuahua by Ten Thousand Federal Soldiers.

Juarez, Mex.—Caught in a trap in a trap, although the trap is 100 miles wide and 200 miles long, in Pancho Villa, commander in chief of rebel forces in the north. This is declared by advices received here by Generalissimo Tejeda, federal commander of this zone. The official announcement is verified by railway reports and from various other sources.

Grease now has only about 400 men. He is surrounded by federal forces aggregating more than are spread out from the city of Chihuahua to the south. At the border at this point and along the Mexican Central running directly north to the border, and the Mexican Northwestern, which runs from Chihuahua city west and north to Juarez.

William Flinn, Roosevelt leader in Pennsylvania, was secured by Pearson. The senator charged that he had Flinn offered him and Isaac W. Durham up or two million dollars. If they would leave his candidacy to the senate to succeed Senator Quay. Senator Pearson read what purported to be copies of telegrams to show that Flinn was John D. Archibald to assist him in securing the election.

Improving Road in Idaho.—Oregon Short Line to Spend $1,750,000 During the Year.

Salt Lake City.—The management of the Oregon Short Line railroad has received authority for an expenditure of $1,750,000, during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1913, for general improvements along the line in Idaho double tracking, putting in heavier rails and the construction of freight and passenger depots and coal chutes are included in the budget for the year. The completion of the project to Victor is not included, the funds for this having already been provided.

Richmond Wine Prize.—Salt Lake City.—With the election of Byron W. Moser of St. Louis as president for the ensuing year and the naming of Richmond, Virginia, as the next convention city, the American Institute of Banking in session here since Wednesday morning, adjourned at 6:30 o'clock Friday night. At the morning session the delegates returned in an inspiring address by its president, Richard Jordan, president of the Leland Stanford university.

California Supporter of LaFollette to Work for Wilson.—Chicago.—Joseph E. Davis of Wisconsin, secretary of the Democratic national committee, Friday night announced that Rudolph Spreckles of California and John J. Wilson of Wisconsin, both supporters of United States Senator LaFollette in his campaign for the Republican presidential nomination, had agreed to head an organization to work for Woodrow Wilson in the presidential campaign.

Penrose Appears Before Committee.—Washington.—Senator Penrose was a witness before the Clapp committee Friday afternoon. He introduced into the record the statement regarding the $25,000 contribution in the Pennsylvania campaign fund of 1904 by John D. Archibald and the contribution of $10,000 to the national campaign fund which he made Wednesday in the senate. He said he had previously nothing to add to that and would answer any question.

Stays Execution.—Zalem Ore.—An hour before the time set for his execution Friday, H. E. Roberts, convicted of the murder of Donald M. Stewart of Portland, was reported by Governor West. The governor made the stay of execution effective until after the general election in November, saying he did so as the question of the abolition of capital punishment in Oregon would then be presented to the voters.

Operated on Himself.—Los Angeles, Cal.—Jose Alarcon, a Mexican, is dead as the result of having tried to relieve an attack of acute stomach trouble by performing an operation upon himself with a butter knife. He died at the local hospital, where in his death throes he asked a pair of pliers from a nurse and attempted to cut himself to avoid pain.

Train Wreck in Kansas.—Oswallotie, Kan.—Running thirty-five miles an hour to make up lost time, the Missouri Pacific "Oswallotie" express No. 27, westbound, went into a ditch near here Friday night, but no lives were killed.

Mrs. Mackay Injured.—Pittsfield, Mass.—Mrs. Clarence H. Mackay, society leader and prominent outcast, was thrown from her automobile and rendered unconscious at Monument mountain in the Berkshires on Friday.

WARNS WOMEN TO KEEP OUT OF MEXICO

AMERICAN WOMAN ADVISES WIVES AND DAUGHTERS OF COLONISTS TO STAY IN U.S.

Twenty-three Young Mexican Girls of Good Families Have Been Carried Away by Rebels and No Woman is Safe in That Section.

El Paso, Texas.—While the Chihua-hua situation is preparing to go back to their Mexican homes in Northwestern Chihuahua adjoining the Sonora line, Mrs. M. P. Sanders, formerly of Utah, has arrived in El Paso from New York, where, with the warning to all women, foreign or native, to keep out of the country. Mrs. Sanders says that at the present time no woman is safe in the state of Sonora and also the area where twenty-three young Mexican girls of good families were carried away by the rebels under Rojas.

Will Work in Harmony.—Chinese Reformer Dies. Not Think Execution of General Will Lead to Trouble.

Peking.—President Yuan Shi Kai and Dr. Sun Yat Sen, former provisional president of the republic, died together Monday evening, and held a conference before they died, during which the political nation was thoroughly discussed.

Congress in Deadlock.—Adjustment May Come at Any Moment and May Last for a Week.

Washington.—All definite plans for the adjournment of congress are off. The session which was to have ended yesterday night still exists, given new life at the break of dawn on the Sabbath day. The senate and house are deadlocked over the general dictionary appropriation bill. The house is bitterly unyielding; a filibuster within a filibuster is on in the senate—and a member of either body knows, when the second session of the Sixty-second congress will adjourn also die.

Has Right to Beat Rival.—Baltimore, Md.—That a wife with impunity beat her husband's father was the opinion expressed Saturday morning by Justice Smith in the case of the wife of John Samuels. She was charged with assaulting and beating Victoria, Sherman, to whom, according to the evidence, he paid attention during the absence of his wife in Panama.

Judges Refuse to Try Darrow.—Los Angeles.—All of the twelve superior court judges of Los Angeles county have refused to preside at the second trial of Clarence A. Darrow, the Chicago lawyer, charged with slaying his brother-in-law, the slain Victoria, Sherman, to whom, according to the evidence, he paid attention during the absence of his wife in Panama.

Government to Raise Rice.—Manila.—Acting Governor Gilbert and party left Sunday for Mindanao to inspect the rich rubber estates and a site for proposed large rubber plantations to be owned by the government. The objects of the government-owned plantations is to create a future rice famine, and to prevent importations which reach a yearly average valued at $5,000,000 and.

Italians Rob Canadian Bank.—Vancouver, B. C.—Four Italians, masked and carrying automatic weapons, robbed the Cedar Cottage branch of the Bank of Hamilton Sunday night. They escaped in an automobile, after a revolver battle with the police, in which one of their number was wounded. Bank officials are seeking (reporting the amount taken).

Disasters Electrical Storm.—St. Louis, Mo.—Three persons were killed and seven others injured by lightning which accompanied a severe electrical storm which swept this city and vicinity Sunday morning. The storm also wrought much property damage on both sides of the river. Many buildings were struck by lightning and badly damaged.

Forest Fires in California.—Pasadena, Cal.—The forest fire in the Santa Monica mountains northeast of here, has again taken a new turn, and now threatens the entire Pasadena watershed. A force of 120 men are fighting the fire.

Days Released on Bond.—Kansas City.—John Heilbrunn and John Parley, the two boys who confessed to having killed and buried Lynwood Lee Timmerman, an attorney general, is to deliver the annual address before the American Bar association at its meeting in Milwaukee next week. His subject will be "New Nationalism."

Vetoes Power Site Measure.—Washington.—President Taft has vetoed the power site bill. The bill was to give to the Alabama Power company the right to build a dam across the Coosa river, a mile above Wetumpka, Ala.

DISASTROUS FIRE IN LONDON

Central Telegraph Office Cut Off From Communication With Rest of England.

London.—This city was on Saturday night entirely cut off from telegraphic communication with the rest of the country and with the continent, and for a time communication with America was severed by the result of a severe fire breaking out in the general post office, where the central telegraph office is located, and from which all wires of the service are concentrated.

While the fire was extremely fierce, no lives were lost and the damage was confined to the walls of the building. A thousand employees, a majority of them women, got out of the structure promptly and without panic.

TRAGEDY RESULT OF BRAWL.—Four Men Killed Following Quizzel Over Card Game.

Tokyo, Wash.—Four men are dead here as a result of a fatal early Saturday night in a saloon.

In a quarrel over a card game, Patrick O'Brien was struck on the head with a revolver by "Curley" Gashner and fatally injured. He died in the afternoon.

Deputy Sheriff William Knap of Colfax and Tuxia Marshall Green Hickman of Tolson were in the saloon in common with others. As they entered the door, O'Brien, a brother of "Curley," offered five with a rifle, killing both officers. He then fired a bullet into his own brain.

President Signs Canal Bill.—Washington.—President Taft signed the Panama canal bill Saturday night. Following this he sent to congress a memorandum recommending the advice of the passage of a resolution which would declare that this measure was not considered by this government a violation of the treaty provisions regarding the canal.

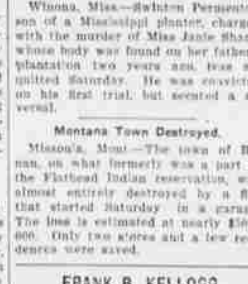

Auto Wrecks House, Injures Child.—Ogden, Utah.—Whirling over an embankment after the driver had lost control of the machine, a large touring car belonging to David Reine crashed through the six-inch brick wall of Paul Kemmeyer's home and injured Joseph Kemmeyer, a three-year-old child, so seriously that death may result. The chauffeur escaped injury.

Tilman Fights Blaine.—Spokane, B. C.—Vigorously in pushing all three candidates to defeat him, Tilman again defeated Francis McRae Saturday night, and strongly against Governor Blaine. Tilman's friends declare he is doing this at the risk of being defeated himself at the primary election.

Escapes on Second Trial.—Winona, Minn.—Reuben Pennerman son of a Mississippi planter, charged with the murder of Miss Jane Sharp whose body was found on her father's plantation two years ago, was acquitted Saturday. He was convicted on his first trial, but secured a reversal.

Montana Town Destroyed.—Missoula, Mont.—The town of Roman, on what formerly was a part of the Flathead Indian reservation, was almost entirely destroyed by a fire that started Saturday in a garage. The loss is estimated at nearly $50,000. Only two stores and a few real estates were saved.

FRANK B. KELLOGG

A. BONAR LAW

A. Bonar Law, the leader of the conservative party in England, is being threatened with prosecution because he and others are inciting the Ulster. He is to revolt against Irish home rule.

Matches Ritchie and Hogan.—San Francisco.—Promoter James W. Coffey announced Thursday that he had secured "Que Pasa" Jack Hogan as Willie Black's opponent for a knockout-round battle in San Francisco. Admission day September 24.

Mrs. Grier Critically Ill.—Birmingham.—Mrs. Robert Grier's condition is critical, according to the physician in attendance. Her ailment has been diagnosed as cancer. She is confined to her bed in board her north the Alabama.

MRS. SUN YAT SEN

Whose husband, Dr. Sun Yat Sen, China's first provisional president, is reported to be in danger of assassination.

Price of Cattle Rising.—Chicago.—Prime steers, which last week sold at $15.50, the top price in years, commanded an additional five Wednesday, and sold at $16.00. High grade cattle have advanced steadily in price for weeks.

Moore to Meet in Cincinnati.—Kansas City.—Cincinnati was selected by the annual convention of the Local Order of Moose as the 1913 meeting place of their organization. The salary of supreme dictator was fixed at $5000.